The motion to withdraw as counsel (Dkt. No. 60) is GRANTED to the extent that plaintiff seemingly seeks to terminate counsel (see Dkt. No. 58 at 1) and has not filed an opposition to the motion. The motion is otherwise DENIED. Going forward, plaintiff shall represent himself. The Court will not appoint another lawyer for him. Counsel for plaintiff shall provide paper copies to plaintiff of whatever materials — including the instant order and the case management scheduling order — that, in counsel's judgment, will assist plaintiff in proceeding with the instant action.

Insofar as plaintiff seeks to amend the complaint and disqualify the California Attorney General's Office as counsel for defendants (Dkt. No. 58), the motion is DENIED. The matter is suitable for disposition without oral argument and thus plaintiff's request for a hearing is DENIED. See Civ. L.R. 7-1(b).
